Church of the Anointing in Warri Delta State, Nigeria offers free surgery for non-members

In line with the church vision; of providing free medical care to members of the public during its annual convention, the Church of the Anointing, Inc., Warri Delta State, has performed free surgical operations on seven patients at the Anointed Medical Centre in Enerhen.

Local newsmen interviewed the General Overseer Rev. Francis Ejiroghene Waive, as he walked around the hospital complex, where the hospital staff and other medical personnel attended to various patients. Rev. Waive stated that the program was born out of the burden of providing quality healthcare, particularly to those who cannot afford it.

He noted that though the scheme was very challenging, the joy of putting a smile on the faces of the suffering poor in accordance with the gospel of peace and healing of the Lord Jesus Christ was his greatest motivation. Below is a picture of the church praying for a patient who benefited from the free surgery program.

Church of the Anointing Convention Look What the Lord Did in Nigeria

How we bless the Lord for convention 2010! It is the biggest and best Convention we have had in the history of this ministry. April 15 to 18 2010 will go down in history as a time when the Lord visited and blessed His people.

The most important dimension of the Convention was the presence of God that was so strong. The atmosphere became electric with a feeling that something was about to drop on the preceding Sunday when members of the Church of the Anointing in Warri carried out a Rally round major streets in the metropolis heralding the Convention. This feeling continued to grow till the end of the meetings and what an amazing blessing it was.

One very blissful aspect of convention 2010 was the utterance the Lord gave our Ministers. They did justice to the theme – INCREASE ON EVERYSIDE, teaching the word and prophetically sharing during all the sessions. There were times for personal as well as corporate ministry.

The attendance is another area worthy of mention. Each night participants struggled to get seats despite the arrangement of more seats in the hall of worship. By Sunday, more chairs had to be hired and canopies too. People came from all over the Country including our churches in the islands of the Niger-Delta. Nineteen of our brethren were baptized in water at the Udu River during the Convention. The children Choir ministered under such a powerful unction. And then there was the baby boy born during the convention!

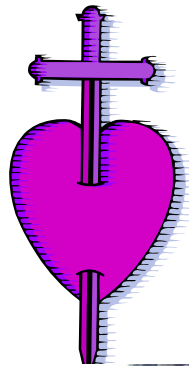

It was from the 22nd to the 24th of April 2010. Ozoro came alive – agog for Jesus. Thousands of people attended with several hundred coming out nightly to accept Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Several committees were setup for Prayer, Protocol, Publicity, music, instruments, venue, counseling, ushering, and program. We printed posters, handbills, banners and other media sources, such as radio and television announcements in addition to equipment hire and other logistics. Brethren did all the leg work and mobilization. Advocacy visits were paid to Community and Government Officials as meetings and several communications took place. Then the d-day came and the Lord blessed the meetings with good weather. The town was in a festive mood. People had come from all over Isoko North Local Government Area—from Ofagbe, Ovrode, Ellu, Iyede, Emevor, and Owe. The Amrede Primary School Playground venue was a carnival of sorts as people throng it expecting a move of God. The Local Ministers arranged to receive us at the entrance of the town somewhere near the AP Petrol Station. From there we all moved in a long convoy to the Palace of His Royal Majesty the Ovie of Ozoro where we were well received.

That first night the word of God came with clarity and conviction. Some estimates have it that about a thousand persons come forward to receive Christ. The other two nights had a greater attendance and response coupled with prayers for the healing of the sick. Surely the Lord did visit Ozoro and the blessings only just began.

Outreach Ministries IHI Supports Because of Your Partnership With Us

Without the support of Covenant Partners we would not be able to continue this work and on behalf of IHI Ministries we want to take this time to thank you for your continued support and commitment to the ministry.

Here are the ministries that IHI currently support:

*Spoken Word Ministries, Jacksonville, Florida, who have an outreach called "Operation Boomerang." Within this outreach they have five sub-outreaches— Delinquency X (a boot camp that provides resources for juvenile-delinquency prevention); Mechanical of Faith (an outreach that provides ministry geared toward career enhancement and job-skill training for men who are in transition in life); Esther (an outreach program for women and girls that provide the same services as Mechanical of Faith); Standing in the Gap (outreach ministry for individuals who are entangled in the court system and have no support); and Rhema Way (an outreach ministry provided for people who live "at-risk" lifestyles, including those infected with AIDS, drug addicts, alcoholics, prostitutes, the homeless, homosexuals and others).

*Ministry to the Military, Church of God, Cleveland, Tennessee, is an outreach program to enable the armed forces personnel and their families to live a Christian life in the global military of the 21st century.

*Church of the Anointing, Warre Delta State, Nigeria, with Pastors Francis Ejiroghene and Rita Waive. This ministry strives to evangelize the Ijawas people. This ministry also has a Medical Mission and HIV/AIDS Action ministry to reach the hurting people in Nigeria.

*Free Indeed Ministries, Waynesboro, Georgia, is an outreach run by Sister Lexie TenHuisen, who teaches God's word to inmates in prison. You do not have to go on a missions trip around the world to impact hurting people.

By partnering with IHI you are helping by changing many lives around the world.

"For God so loved the World that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believe in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him."
